

OPEN ACADEMIC POSITIONS

Description

Toros University is a newly established private university in Mersin, Turkey. Toros University has its campuses within the city of Mersin.

Mersin is a major city on the Mediterranean coast of Turkey. Mersin offers many advantages as a university city. Climate in Mersin is mild throughout the year. Mersin is rich in terms of social and cultural activities and events. City of Mersin and its surroundings are rich in history. This includes sites and ruins from Roman era, Alexander the Great era, Early Christianity era, Seljuk era and Otoman era.

Toros University offers programs in undergraduate and graduate levels in its schools:

- School of Engineering
- School of Economics Administrative Sciences and Social Sciences
- School of Arts
- School of Communications
- School of Technology and Management
- School of Languages
- Graduate School of Science and Engineering
- Graduate School of Social Sciences
- Vocational School

The language of instruction at Toros University is English.

Please visit <http://www.toros.edu.tr> for additional information about the university.

Toros University is hiring new faculty from all over the World, especially in the following areas:

- Computer science and engineering
- Electrical and electronics engineering
- Industrial engineering and operations research
- Information technologies
- Business administration and management
- Economics
- Political science and international relations

Fluency in English is a must.

Applications are sought for full-time faculty positions at all levels, assistant professor, associate professor and full professor, to begin in Fall 2010, in all the above areas.

Responsibilities

Teaching in undergraduate and graduate levels and to lead and participate in research.

Benefits

- Competitive salary: Toros University offers salaries competitive for private universities in Turkey which is considerably higher than that in state universities in Turkey
- Housing: Rent for housing will be covered by the university within a certain ceiling.

- Job for spouse: Toros University is part of a large educational group in Turkey which owns a number of primary schools and secondary schools. It also has an English language school. Spouses will be offered jobs at these schools, based on availability.

Send application to

Send your application to selahattinkuru@toros.edu.tr in electronic form, with CV, publications list and three references.

Further information

For further information send email to selahattinkuru@toros.edu.tr